Thereafter, Abdel Karim called the subject and said that he had prepared, and wanted a young woman to help take Mohamed out for an attack [illegible].

The subject called Sana'a / Kalandia, about 24 years of age, single, a college student, and asked to meet with her.

After a short time, Sana'a came alone and met with the subject and with Abdel Karim in the center of Ramallah. Abdel Karim stated that he wanted to send out an attacker to [illegible] and they were asking for her assistance due to her studies in Jerusalem and her familiarity with the roads.

Sana agreed to bring the attacker in. The above mentioned individuals went to a house rented by Abdel Karim near Manara square, where the following were then present:

Mohamed Hashaika

Haj Khader / Jenin Refugee Camp, about 19 years of age, single, of short stature, under arrest.

Muzid al Masri / Akabeh, Jenin, about 26 years of age, serving in Force 17 in Ramallah.

After about half an hour, the second young woman arrived.

The following individuals departed in a vehicle that the subject had rented:

The subject

Mohamed Hashaika, wearing the explosive belt.

Sana'a

The additional young woman

The subject drove the three who were with him to the Kalandia Checkpoint. The subject returned to Ramallah while the rest continued inward.

After returning, the subject met Abdel Karim and went to eat in the ~~Darwish~~ Abu Darwish Restaurant. While they were eating they heard about the attack in Jerusalem.

After that Abdel Karim gave the subject a video tape in order to be transferred to the television. The subject transferred the cassette to Ahmed al [illegible].

Thereafter, the subject and Abdel Karim Aweis went to the house of Hasin a Sheikh, also known as Abu Jihad / Ramallah, the Secretary General of the Fatah.

Abdel Karim and Hasin a Sheikh wrote an announcement claiming responsibility for the attack. Thereafter the subject went to the ANN television studios, where he was filmed claiming [illegible] responsibility for the attack.

Thereafter, the subject returned to the house of Hussein a Sheikh. At that time, a decision had arrived from Abu Amar, the Chairman of the Palestinian Authority, to arrest the subject and Abdel Karim.

Tawfik Tirawi called and asked for them to come to the General Intelligence Office. The subject, together with Abdel Karim and Hussein a Sheikh, went to the General Intelligence Office.

Abu Hasin stated that the time of the attack was inappropriate and there was a decision to arrest them. He stated that they had caused problems because Mohamed was allegedly being detained.

He added that Abu Hasin asked the subject to call Rabia Abu Rub, in order for him to claim responsibility on behalf of the Palestinian Islamic Jihad for the attack, in order to extricate the Palestinian Authority from the problem.

The subject tried to call Rabia but without success. Later, the Palestinian Islamic Jihad also claimed responsibility for the attack.

Abu Hasin said that it was not detention but hiding them from the Israelis for a short time, and they were in allegedly detained for about two days.

Abu Hasin asked Abdel Karim to give another interview on television and disavow the attack, Abdel Karim refused.
